THE approaching marriage of Miss Helen Lyle Robertson to Sydney Strother Smith will be quietly celebrated in her home at Forest Hill on Tuesday, July 5, at 10 A. M. in the presence of relatives and a few intimate friends. Miss Robertson is the daughter of Mr. and Mrs. Robert Stanley Robertson, and granddaughter of Mrs. Helen Blane Lyle and the late Judge S. Bassett French, of Manchester.

Mr. Smith is a great-grandson of Chief Justice Marshall, and has a number of friends in Richmond, both in the business and social world. The date of the marriage has been hastened on account of the early departure of the prospective bride's brother, Midshipman R. S. Robertson, Jr., for a cruise of two years.

Miss Janie Holmes Robertson will attend her sister as maid of honor. Mr. Whitehead Best Man.

Howard G. Whitehead, of this city, was best man on Wednesday afternoon at the marriage of his brother, Henry Motley Whitehead, to Miss Bonnie Belle Willis, which was celebrated in the spacious home of the bride's parents, Mr. and Mrs. J. W. Willis, of Greenville, Tenn., at half-past 1 o'clock.

Mrs. J. W. Dishman rendered the "Wedding March" from Mendelssohn. Miss Jessie May Willis was maid of honor, and other attendants were Lucille Alexander, L. C. Willis, and Misses Maudie, Jane and Margaret Hendrix. Miss Alexander and Mr. Willis entered to the first strains of the wedding march, followed by the groom and his best man, Howard L. Whitehead. The two little flower girls preceded the bride, who entered with her maid of honor. During the ceremony the bride's gown stood under a large white wedding veil.

The bride's gown was of white meshing, and she wore a tulle veil and carried a shower bouquet of white roses.

Immediately after the ceremony a reception was tendered about 200 guests, and an elaborate breakfast was served.

NERVOUS DYSPEPSIA

A Disease of the Nerves Not of the Stomach—Correct Home Treatment.

Nervous dyspepsia, unlike other forms of indigestion, is a disease of the nerves, and it must be treated by strengthening the nerves and the use of a good tonic, such as Dr. Williams' Pink Pills, together with a generous and nourishing diet, is the correct home treatment.

After suffering with nervous indigestion for over two years, Mrs. George P. Martin, of No. 16 Admiral Street, New Haven, Conn., tried Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. She tells of the great benefit she received as follows:

"Following a severe run-down condition, I began to suffer with nervous indigestion. Food distressed me so much that it was with difficulty I could drink water, and I had to live on milk almost entirely. I lost in weight and strength. I was so nervous that I could not bear to have any one visit me. I could not sleep nights or if I did I would wake up suddenly with a startled feeling. Whenever I ate much my stomach would bloat and there would be gas on it. Oftentimes I had to vomit to get relief. On going up stairs or in the morning I was certain to have palpitation of the heart. I had dull, sick headaches which lasted for two or three days. During these attacks I was unable to do my household work. I felt sick all over and wanted to be undisturbed."

"The doctor's medicine failed to help me after a trial of over three months. I read about Dr. Williams' Pink Pills in a newspaper and began using them. I noticed a difference after I had taken only a few boxes and was cured when I had given the pills a good trial. My cure has been permanent, but I keep Dr. Williams' Pink Pills on hand to use as a tonic."

Dr. Williams' Pink Pills are useful in cases of acid stomach and in the treatment of over-sensitive stomachs in which the slightest irritation causes painful gnawing or burning sensations. This condition is common among growing girls.

Sufferers from dyspepsia in any form, who have found their condition unrelieved or actually growing worse while using ordinary remedies, would do well to try Dr. Williams' Pink Pills. They are sold by all druggists or direct by mail, postpaid, on receipt of price, 50c per box; six boxes, $2.50. A diet book will be sent free on application to the Dr. Williams' Medicine Company, Schenectady, N. Y.

of Lynchburg, called yesterday on the George Washington, of the North Georgia Line, and was cured when they will go to Carlsbad for the summer.
